PRESENTS

“GET ON THE BUS 2003”

VENDOR REGISTRATION FOR WORKSHOP ‘TABLETOP’ EXHIBITION

The NZ Foundation™ Fieldbus End Users Council plans to hold a workshop on September 5th at Auckland Grand Chancellor Hotel.

The workshop is to consist of combination international and local speakers presenting papers on a wide variety of Foundation™ Fieldbus related topics and a Foundation Fieldbus Tutorial, which will be presented by Ian Verhappen.

"Ian was one of the early adopters of fieldbus technology several years ago. His experience with evaluating, testing and developing the groundwork for fieldbus as a user, led to his election as Chairman of the FF End User Advisory Council. Ian is considered one of the foremost authorities on the engineering and design of fieldbus systems in a plant today." Kurt Zech, Fieldbus Foundation director of operations

The “Get on the Bus 2003” workshop is to stage a ‘tabletop’ exhibition to provide the opportunity and a ‘one stop shop’ for the conference delegates to talk to vendors on their latest Fieldbus products and services.

The NZ Foundation™ Fieldbus end Users Council would like to invite you to reserve your ‘tabletop’ at this years “Get on the Bus 2003” workshop.

The products on display must be related to Foundation™ Fieldbus. Operating control systems, consisting of field instrumentation, SCADA systems and operator interfaces etc. are preferred however vendors wishing to display associated hardware, software and test equipment are also welcomed.

The cost to reserve one ‘tabletop’ is NZ$350. This fee also covers one delegate to the conference. The delegate price is NZ$300.

The workshop is being organised by John Bazley, a Senior Control Systems Engineer from Beca Simons and Simon White an Industrial Measurement and Control Programme Leader from Waikato’s Institute of Technology in conjunction with New Zealand’s Institute of Measurement and Controls.
